Chapel Reviews Changes in His District With Reapportionment

Prior to the enactment of the bill reapportiong the Assembly, the 46th Assembly District had about 134,000 registered voters, which means it had about 268,000 people. According to the experts hired by the legislature, each assembly district in the state should have close to 100,000 registered voters.

portionment, I lose Lennox, all of the major portion of Ingle-wood which was in the district (North Inglewood was taken out at the time of the 1951 reapportionment over my strenuous objections), and Westchester (Los Angeles 45) as far west as lican and in Sacramento by

LEGALLY, I still represent the old 46th Assembly District until the beginning of the next general session of the Legislature in Sacramento during the first we ek in January, 1963.

Likewise, that portion of Torrance added to the 46th District is legally represented in trict is legally represented in Sacramento by the Honorable Vincent Thomas until 1963, and in a like manner the narrow coastal strip joining my dis-trict to that of Harold Levering is still represented by the Hon-orable Lester McMillan. How-ever, from a practical view-point, I am morally obligated to look out for the interest of the people newly added to the 46th District.

Reapportionment was entire-ly in the hands of the Demo-cratic Party. Lennox, Ingle-wood and most of Westchester were taken away from me in were taken away from me in order to form new districts favorable to the Democratic Party, even though Valways carried Inglewood and Westchester at the elections. These communities were needed by the Democrats in order to have enough voters in newly organized assembly and congressional districts.

SANTA CATALINA Island and San Clemente remain in the 46th Assembly District and are to be represented in Congress by Al Bell.

As a result of reapportionment, the 46th Assembly District, which retains that designation although many districts have new numbers, includes the parrow trip mentioned the narrow trip mentioned above, that portion of West-chester west of Sepulveda, El Segundo, Manhattan Beach, Segundo, Manhattan Be a c n, Hermosa Beach, most of Redon-do Beach (but not including most of what we know as North Redondo), the Hollywood Riv-iera section of the City of Tor-rance, the newly added portion of Torrance, Palos Verdes Esportionment over my strenuous objections), and Westchester (Los Angeles 45) as far west as Sepulveda Blvd. I retain the remainder of the original district and gain a large portion of Torrance plus a narrow corridor running up the coast to join my district to that of Harold Levering, who represents Santa Monica, Brentwood, and adjacent areas.

If I had not been given the new portion of Torrance, the district would have been about 55 per cent Republican, but with the addition of the new Torrance area (which is registered about two to one Democratic) and the narrow coastal strip connecting me with Levering, the district now has about an equal number of Republicans and Democrats.

THE 46th ASSEMBLY district has been taken out of the Congressional District represented by Cecil R. King and put in with that represented by Congressman Al Bell. In addition to the Levering district and mine, the ne wly formed congressional district includes an assembly district represented by Charles Conard.

Therefore, the new congress, sional district is represented in Washington, D. C., by a Republican a n d in Sacramento by three Republican members of the Assembly.
